

History of the Order of Runeberg

The Order of Runeberg was organized in Waukegan, Illinois, U.S.A. on August 20, 1920. The organization was made possible by the combining of two separate groups: The Swedish-Finnish Benevolent and Aid Association of America, and the Swedish-Finnish Temperance Association. The membership at that time consisted almost exclusively of people who came to North America from the Swedish speaking part of Finland.

The Order bears the name of Johan Ludwig Runeberg, one of Finland's greatest men. He was known throughout Scandinavia as a poet, teacher and statesman. To a great extent, the ideals as portrayed by this man formed the foundation of the organization that bears his name. It is the aim of the Order of Runeberg, as a fraternal organization, to encourage unity, friendship, helpfulness, honor and the preservation of the Finnish-Swedish culture.

The Order of Runeberg at its inception, provided a much-needed common meeting ground for a group of people who had brought the cultural traditions of Finland to the shores of North America. Since that time the membership has been extended to many other sons and daughters of the founders, plus relatives and friends, some of the same origin and others of different nationalities. The Swedish language which formerly predominated throughout the Order, has now largely been replaced by English. However, in spite of some surface changes, the Order of Runeberg is still carrying on the traditions and ideals which existed in 1920.

The official name of the Order is "The International Order of Runeberg," which includes Lodges in the U.S.A, Canada and Finland. In the Swedish language "Runeberg Orden."

We extend a hearty welcome to you and your friends to join with us in our Lodge work and festivities.
